

We are pleased that the Lord has directed you to our school. Our primary goals are to immerse students in the Bible and to partner with parents in the education of their children. We understand there are a lot of pages to read and sign. It is important that we are clear about our expectations and responsibilities, so we can serve your student and family to the best of our ability.

Besides these materials, our website (cordeoacademy.org) provides more detailed information about our school. Should you desire further conversations after reviewing the material, please contact:

Robert Arndt: rarndt@cordeoacademy.org (Principal)

STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Cor Deo Christian Academy is committed to non-discrimination on the basis of race, color or national and ethnic origin in educational policies, admission policies & scholarships. We reserve the right to select students on the basis of academic performance, religious commitment and personal qualifications including willingness to cooperate with the school administration and to abide by its policies.

Parent's Commitment

Mission Statement:

Cor Deo partners with parents to inspire and equip children to become mature Christian disciples through Bible study, application, and teaching traditional academics from a Christian worldview.

We have read and understand the school's mission statement and statement of faith, and we are in general agreement with the purpose and philosophy of Cor Deo.

We do hereby state that we have made a thorough investigation of the school's program, parent partnership, curriculum, discipline position, dress code, etc., and we agree to make them our choice for the coming school year.

We understand that we have an obligation to be actively involved in the education of our child(ren). We agree to uphold and support the high academic standards of the school by providing a place at home for our child(ren) to study and to give our encouragement in the completion of homework assignments, teaching assignments and follow-through especially on Tuesday and Thursday of each week as needed. To be actively involved includes co-teaching with the Cor Deo teaching staff.

We understand that the standards of Cor Deo do not tolerate profanity, obscenity in word or action, dishonor to the Lord and His Word, disrespect to the personnel of the school or other students, or continued disobedience to the established policies of the school by either student or parent and violations will be handled biblically (Matthew 18:15-17).

We believe that discipline is necessary for the benefit of each student as well as for the entire school, and we give permission for teachers, staff and administration to make and enforce discipline in a manner consistent with Christian principles and discipline as set forth in the Scriptures (Proverbs 22:6; 29:17; Colossians 3:20; Hebrews 12:6).

At Cor Deo we value our partnership with parents. We are striving to make tuition affordable because we understand that a parent needs to be home working with their child(ren) on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Cor Deo is called to be good stewards. As you prayerfully consider enrolling at Cor Deo please make sure you are committed to our school.

Please initial below on the line to the left to indicate you have read and understand the following statements:

_____ Cor Deo makes commitments in the early spring for the following school year. Teachers are given contracts and curriculum is purchased. We take the registration numbers and begin committing funds. If you register your child you are agreeing to commit to the following school year.

_____ Withdraw Fee: We understand that if we withdraw after the following dates tuition is still due at the following Rates:

- Withdrawal between 8/1-8/31 50% of annual tuition is still due
- Withdrawal after 9/1: 100% of annual tuition is still due
- Waiver of remaining tuition may be granted at the discretion of the school board. If you have special circumstances regarding a withdrawal please contact the school board.

_____ Deposit Distribution: The non-refundable deposit will be distributed evenly between all children in your family. If you have multiple children enrolled and you withdraw one student, their portion of the deposit will not apply to the remaining student's tuition.

_____ 2026-2027 School Year: Tuition Payment Plan will change to a 12 month payment plan starting July 1, 2026 through June 1, 2027. You may pay the tuition in full, utilizing the $100 Lump Sum Discount per student if paid in full by July 1, 2026.

_____ Assessments and Fees: Damages to school, including but not limited to breakage of windows, book damage or loss, and abuse of other personal property; may incur additional assessments and fees.

- _____ We understand that in order to keep tuition as low as possible, we are required to complete the following volunteer service hours each year: Part-Time 10 hours, Full-Time 35 hours or Tuition Assistance Recipient 45 hours. The Roles of Teachers, Parents and Students at Cor Deo

Cor Deo is an integration of Christian school with independent study, a unique blend for parents who desire to be involved in their student's education but want the consistency, accountability, and expertise that a traditional school can provide. Our school provides the flexibility for - and strongly encourages - parents to augment their children's education by teaching other subjects at home or involving them in music lessons, personal hobbies, fitness activities (such as sports leagues), or other activities of interest to the children or family.

Cor Deo and its classroom teachers will be responsible for developing curriculum, lesson plans, coursework, instruction, grading, transcripts and diplomas. Classroom instruction is administered on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, students study independently. Parents ensure work assignments are carried out in accordance with the teachers' work assignments.

It is important to understand that Cor Deo Christian Academy is a 5 day a week school. There is work that needs to get done on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Different grade levels will have different parent involvement on Tuesdays and Thursdays:

Grades: K-2	High Parent Involvement
Grades: 3-6	Medium Parent Involvement
Grades: 7-10	Low Parent Involvement

Definitions:

High:	punctuality, reading directions, explaining, organizing, correcting work
Medium:	punctuality, organizing, explaining, observing- correcting work
Low:	punctuality, encouraging, some correcting of work

Estimate of time on Tuesdays and Thursdays: (times vary for different students)

Kindergarten	1-2 hours
Grades: 1-2	2-3 hours
Grades: 3-4	3-4 hours
Grades: 5-6	4-5 hours
Grades: 7-8	4-6 hours

The spiritual, educational and emotional development of the students is ultimately the responsibility of the parents. They may delegate some of the process in that development to the school. However, they must recognize that they are accountable before God for their personal choices.

We, the parents, have read the above and will adhere to its guidelines in our roles and responsibilities.

Statement of Faith

The Bible. The entire 66 books of the Bible are the Holy Spirit-authenticated word of God.¹ Although the Bible was written by human authors in a variety of styles and genres, it is "God breathed"² and is without error in the original manuscripts³. It is truthful and trustworthy, and it has supreme authority in all it addresses⁴. It is the complete written word of God⁵ and should be studied diligently by all people⁶.

God. There is only one living and true God⁷ creator of heaven and earth⁸ who is infinite in being and perfection⁹. Everything that takes place is under His sovereign control¹⁰. He is a transcendent spirit who is distinct from His creation¹¹, but he is also intimately involved in every detail¹² and is knowable¹³. God is all powerful¹⁴, all knowing¹⁵, everywhere present¹⁶, unchanging¹⁷, loving¹⁸, holy¹⁹, just²⁰, and glorious²¹. His perfect knowledge extends to all things past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures²². God is eternally existing²³ in three persons²⁴ who are equal in every divine attribute and who execute distinct but harmonious roles²⁵ in the work of creation, providence and redemption:

- God the Father, who bears this name especially in relation to the Son²⁶ and to His children²⁷, is the originator of all things and initiates revelation²⁸, creation²⁹, redemption³⁰, and covenant relationship with His people.

- God the Son, is the eternally existent Son of God³¹ and is equal to the Father as deity³². In fact, as the Word³³ and image of God³⁴, He is the most definitive revelation of all God is³⁵. He was incarnated as the man Jesus³⁶, being conceived by the Holy Spirit³⁷ and born of the virgin Mary³⁸. We believe in His sinless life³⁹, miracles, and teachings. We also believe in His substitutionary atoning death⁴⁰, bodily resurrection⁴¹, ascension into heaven⁴², perpetual intercession for His people⁴³, future visible return to earth⁴⁴, and eternal dominion over all people⁴⁵.

- God the Spirit is a personal being⁴⁶ equal as deity to the Father and the Son⁴⁷. He was sent by the Father and the Son⁴⁸ to glorify Christ⁴⁹; to convict the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment⁵⁰; and to regenerate⁵¹, sanctify⁵², and empower⁵³ all who believe in Jesus Christ. Believers have communion with the Father and the Son through the Holy Spirit⁵⁴. The Holy Spirit dwells in every believer in Christ⁵⁵, and He is their abiding helper⁵⁶, teacher⁵⁷, and guide⁵⁸. Knowing God better⁵⁹, loving and delighting in Him and His ways⁶⁰, and bringing Him joy⁶¹ should be the chief goal of every person.

People. Adam and Eve, who were historic people, were created in the moral and spiritual image of God as free, rational, and relational beings and were given responsibility for and authority over God's creation⁶². Even after the Fall, all people retain the image of God⁶³ and therefore have great value and worth. All people are sinners by nature due to the Fall⁶⁴ and by choice⁶⁵, and therefore they are under condemnation⁶⁶, leading to spiritual and physical death⁶⁷. People are corrupted by sin in every area of life⁶⁸, hostile toward God and incapable of pleasing Him⁶⁹.

Salvation. People are so dead and lost in sin⁷⁰ that they can only be saved by God's initiative, as God works in their hearts⁷¹. A right relationship with God can only be obtained through the atoning death of the righteous one, Jesus Christ⁷², Who came to earth by God's gracious predetermined plan⁷³. Those who repent of their sins and trust in Jesus Christ alone for their salvation (Galatians) are saved by grace⁷⁴ and preserved in the faith⁷⁵ by the Holy Spirit⁷⁶.

Statement of Faith

The Church. Jesus is actively building the universal church,⁷⁷ a living spiritual body of which Christ is the head⁷⁸ and all His followers are members⁷⁹. We also believe in the local church, consisting of believers in Jesus Christ who should be baptized on a credible profession of faith and associated for worship, ministry, and fellowship⁸⁰. We believe the local church glorifies God by worshiping Him, edifying one another in love⁸¹, and proclaiming the full word of God to every people group⁸². We also believe that local church leaders (Elders) should have authority⁸⁴ and the responsibility to lovingly discipline members who refuse to repent of sin⁸⁵.

Baptism. The Lord Jesus has committed to the local church two sacred ceremonies: baptism and the Lord's Supper. Although baptism is not necessary for salvation⁸⁶, Christ commands and expects it as an act of obedience by every true believer⁸⁷. Because Christian baptism is a symbol of our new life of union with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection, and because of the very meaning of the word "baptism," it is best carried out by immersion in water, and it is to be performed in the name of the triune God⁸⁸.

Communion. The Lord's Supper ("Communion") was instituted by Christ as a commemoration of His sacrificial death and should be observed regularly until he returns⁸⁹. The elements are symbolic of Christ's once-for-all sacrifice; therefore, we are not actually eating the body and blood of Jesus, nor do the elements inherently impart grace. Nevertheless, the visual reminder of Christ's death and new covenant eaten by sincere believers in obedience to the Lord and in fellowship together nourishes our relationship with Christ and with each other.

Progressive Sanctification. At the moment of salvation (justification), the Holy Spirit fully dwells in each Christian⁹⁰ and increasingly produces fruit⁹¹, such as love, obedience to God, humility, sexual purity, generosity, and spiritual maturity—all leading to greater and greater Christlikeness⁹². As Christians we need to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit and with His help put off all types of sin⁹³. Sanctification culminates in glorification, which is the final blessed state of the redeemed.

Christians and Civil Government. The civil government is a third human social institution (along with the family and the church) ordained by God. Its specific ministry is encouraging righteousness, administering justice, defending life and property, and restraining evil⁹⁴. It is not independent of God, but subject to Him⁹⁵. We are to be subject to lawful civil authorities⁹⁶ yet may participate in influencing the laws and administration as citizens and holders of public office. However, we must respectfully disobey laws and commands of the civil government and accept the penalties whenever those laws are clearly contrary to the Bible⁹⁷.

Truth. All truth corresponds to objective spiritual and physical reality because God is the author of Scripture and the creator and sustainer of nature⁹⁸. Such objective truth is grounded in the person and character of the Triune God⁹⁹. As a result, it does not change with circumstances, time, or culture and is independent of what any person or group thinks about the world. Proclaiming the truth as revealed by the Scriptures is one of the primary tasks of the church¹⁰⁰. The scientific method and other means of knowledge that are consistent with the scriptural worldview are useful in discovering truth about God's creation. Scientific and experiential knowledge may inform but should never dictate how we interpret the Bible. Instead, the Bible is the final authority to which all truth claims must submit.

The Family. The family consists of people united by marriage, biological relationship, or adoption. Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime, modeling the relationship between Christ and the church¹⁰¹. The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image.¹⁰² A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church and to exercise his God-given responsibility to lead and lay down his life for his family¹⁰³. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ¹⁰⁴. Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing from the Lord¹⁰⁵. Parents—not the church or the state—have the primary responsibility to direct and develop their children, and they will be held accountable by God for discipling their children in the instruction of the Lord¹⁰⁶. Children are to honor and obey their parents¹⁰⁷. Sins which harm the family and pervert God's intention for marriage, such as lust, pornography, fornication, adultery, and homosexuality, must be put off¹⁰⁸.

The Last Things. The Lord Jesus Christ will personally and visibly return to earth¹⁰⁹ to deliver His people¹¹⁰, to conquer all who oppose His will¹¹¹, and to consummate His Kingdom¹¹². Therefore, our ultimate hope for a righteous world is not based on politics, science and technology, or any other human endeavor, but on the return of Jesus Christ¹¹³. We believe in the resurrection of the body¹¹⁴, the final judgment¹¹⁵ the eternal blessedness of the believing righteous¹¹⁶, and the endless conscious suffering of the unbelieving wicked¹¹⁷.

Taking Action. We believe our understanding and study of these doctrines will nourish our inner lives, strengthen our faith, and bring us comfort, peace, and joy. We also believe we need to act upon this statement of faith, that we need to be doers of God's word and not only hearers who delude themselves¹¹⁸. In fact, we believe that at the final judgment, God will reward us for our faithfulness to these biblical beliefs and how we have put them into action¹¹⁹.

We, the parents, have read the above, believe the statement of faith to be true and understand that Cor Deo Christian Academy administers the school under this belief.

Grade 7- 10

Mission Statement:

Cor Deo partners with parents to inspire and equip children to become mature Christian disciples through Bible study, application, and teaching traditional academics from a Christian worldview.

I have read, or had the school's mission statement and its statement of faith read to me, and understand the purpose and philosophy of Cor Deo.

I agree to abide by Cor Deo's policies and will obey its administration and teachers.

I agree to take my studies seriously and will seek to encourage my fellow students to academic excellence.

I acknowledge that I am part of both a physical and virtual community. As such, I will represent Cor Deo well in my online and virtual interactions.

I understand that the standards of Cor Deo do not tolerate profanity, obscenity in word or action, dishonor to the Lord and His Word, disrespect to the personnel of the school or other students, or continued disobedience to the established policies of the school by either student or parent and violations will be handled biblically (Matt 18:15-17).

I understand that failure to comply with the school's regulations, policies, administration, or this personal commitment may forfeit my privilege to attend Cor Deo.
